Implementation: The event took place at the Admin Block Library, where participants received carefully crafted clues related to their academic subjects (Income Tax I). These clues, strategically placed throughout the library, served as guides to specific books relevant to their coursework. Once a book was located, students were tasked with extracting information to answer questions accompanying the clues. This dynamic interaction aimed to foster a deeper understanding of academic topics and promote critical thinking.

The collaborative nature of the activity was emphasized as students worked in teams to understand clues and solve problems. This not only encouraged teamwork but also enhanced their communication skills. The process of actively engaging with books, deciphering clues, and solving problems added an interactive and lively dimension to the learning experience.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Enhanced Subject Understanding: The "Treasure Hunt" successfully reinforced students' subject knowledge on Income Tax by encouraging practical application of theoretical concepts. Engaging with relevant books facilitated a deeper understanding of academic topics.
2. Skill Development: The program proved effective in cultivating essential skills such as research, critical thinking, and teamwork. Students developed the ability to decipher clues, locate information, and collaborate effectively, contributing to their overall academic and personal development.

The "Treasure Hunt" created an interactive and lively learning experience. By integrating recreation with academic content, the program demonstrated the potential of dynamic, hands-on activities to enhance the academic journey.

Chapter: Press History In India
A perspective
B.P. Sanjay

The printing press arrived in India (Goa) by default. The launch of Jamu Augustus Hickey's Bengal Gazette on 29 January 1780 is considered the founding date of newspapers in India. The newspaper, according to various accounts, earned its origins to the in-fighting between two factions in the Governor General's Council. As a weekly political and commercial paper, it claimed to be open to all but influenced by none. However, it is alleged to have carried out partisan coverage against Warren Hastings and his kind.

Dig Dabhan, a monthly Bengali magazine for youth, Sanchaya Daban, a weekly in Bengali a friend of India, a monthly in English have been noted. The missionary character of these magazines is said to have prompted a response and to assert national self-respect, a few newspapers were published, a move initiated by Raja Ram Mohan Roy.

The launch of his three journals around 1821, Sambad Kesamidi, Minat al-Hind and Brahminical Magazine and the contest in which they were launched, have earned him the credit of being the father of the Indian Press.

A gender approach focuses on the system and determines gender roles, responsibilities, access to resources and the potential to make a decision. Gender systems are also institutionally through culture, education, political and economic systems. Gender refers to both men and women and the relation between them. There has been a much stronger focus on men in research on gender perspectives. There are three main approaches to this - identifying men as allies for gender equality and involve them in their work; changing men's attitudes and behaviour regarding reproductive rights and health without which gender equality is

Brief report of the event:

The Library and Information Centre conducted a Book Discourse on 7th September 2023 at 2:00 p.m. at M1 Auditorium, First Floor, Main Block. The session introduced the book titled 'Arivinolagana Beragu' to the students. The authors Dr. Sarvesh B S, Prof. Chandrashekar N, Dr. Syed Muen, Dr. Ravishankar A K and Dr. Byrappa M., recalled the inspirations that led to the creation of this book. Vachana sahitya is a form of rhythmic writing in Kannada, that evolved in the 11th century and flourished in the 12th century, as a part of the Sharana movement. These are readily intelligible prose texts. The vachana literature heavily influenced the 12th century bhakti movement led by Basavanna. Vachanas written by sharanas brought awareness to many people about the simplicity of life and religion. These vachanas also inspired many people to follow Dharma (righteousness) and to give up superstitions. There were millions of vachanas, but many of them were lost. Luckily, we still have hundreds of thousands of vachanas remaining with us. In this article, the authors have made an attempt to interpret a couple of vachanas by Basavanna. Dr. Deekshith Kumar M., Faculty, Department of Political Science and Dr. Jyoti R., Faculty, Life Sciences, Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous), Bengaluru presented mementoes to the authors.

POETS' LEAGUE

ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024

Date: 08.09.2023

Time: 11.25 am

Venue: M1 Audi, Main Block.

Number of Beneficiaries: 70

Presenters: BA (English), First Semester Students

Objective: To develop creative writing skills among students

A brief writeup of the event:

Collaborating with the Library and Information Centre, the Library Resource Usage Optimisation Committee, and the Department of English, witnessed a unique event on September 8th, 2023- The Poet's League. This initiative, aimed at celebrating and nurturing the literary prowess of students, took a distinctive approach by focusing on the training process involved in honing their poetic skills and emphasizing on their literary skill development.

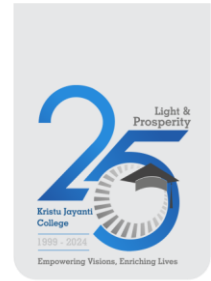

Twenty-six aspiring poets mounted the stage and gave intense readings of their original poetry, all of which had love as their central topic. Throughout the event, a wide range of manifestations of love were on display, including love for siblings, parents, and even deeply held pets. Notably, a few poets examined the complex aspects of loving oneself. What added a unique dimension to this creative endeavor was the constraint of a 20-minute timeframe within which the poems were crafted. Originating from an in-class activity, these impromptu creations evolved into captivating pieces, a testament to the students' artistic growth. This activity emphasizes the commitment of the institution in nurturing and honoring the skills of its students, accentuating the importance of skill development as an integral part of their educational journey.

The distinguished presence of Reverend Father Joshy Mathew, Director of the Library and Information Centre, Director of the HR Department, Head of the Department of English, and other esteemed faculty members underscored the significance of the event. Their participation not only demonstrated institutional support but also contributed to the holistic development of students.

The recited poems painted a vivid tapestry of human emotions and experiences, showcasing the rich reservoir of talent within the student community. Beyond merely showcasing their literary prowess, the program aimed to instill a sense of connection and appreciation for poetry among the participants and the audience. To acknowledge and encourage the budding poets, tokens of appreciation were distributed to all participants. Furthermore, it was announced that the poems recited would be compiled into an anthology, preserving and showcasing the literary achievements of the students.

Learning Outcomes: The event proved to be a platform where students gained valuable insights into the creative skills required for poetry writing. The training process not only allowed them to explore their artistic capabilities but also fostered an environment conducive to personal skill development and collective growth in the realm of literature.
