FAREWELL DAY AT SRCC

ALL LALA SHRI RAM had really wanted to do was create a centre for commerce education in India. But, even by his own imagination, he would have probably been stunned to see that what he started in a hired house in Delhi's Daryaganj, with all of 12 students, has grown to become India's premier institution for commerce and economics.

Today, the Shri Ram College of Commerce attracts students from all corners of the country. They come seeking top quality education and highest standards of excellence. The student composition at SRCC is uniform—most set foot here after topping their school, city or state in the 12 boards. The other group of achievers is one that has made a mark in the sporting arena.

WHY THE BEST >>

» Since merit is the only criteria for getting admission, SRCC gets the best students; we also have the best faculty and infrastructure

» We make special effort to constantly upgrade our library

» This year, we invited students to submit research articles on subjects of their choice, which were then published in a journal that was launched by the Union HRD minister

» There is a lot of emphasis on extracurricular activities—we have about 40 societies, which give students something more to do beyond academics

» We have a very systematically planned placement process

Rajendra Prasad Rustagi,
Principal, SRCC

SRCC passouts go places. The academically inclined make it to renowned national and international institutions—IIM, Delhi School of Economics, London School of Economics to name a few. Placement records are enviable, with no top recruiter giving SRCC a miss, from Google, Uber, Deutsche Bank, Citibank to McKinsey.

What sets SRCC apart is its liberal and energetic atmosphere. The SRCC Business Conclave, arguably the biggest undergraduate management festival in India, has in the past seen participation by 10,000 students and attendance by the likes of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Bharti Enterprises founder-chairman Sunil Bharti Mittal, Infosys co-founder N.R. Narayana Murthy and Godrej group chairman Adi Godrej. It is planned and organised entirely by the college students' body.
