Dr. Aryamol K. B. is an Assistant Professor in the Department of English at Kristu Jayanti (Deemed-to-be University), Bengaluru. She earned her B.A. in English from Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, Indore, and her M.A., M.Phil., and Ph.D. in English Literature from Bharathiar University, Coimbatore. She has compiled a course book on Postcolonial Studies for Tamil Nadu Open University (TNOU) and holds additional qualifications in PGDELT and a Master's in Value Education, Counselling, and Psychotherapy, which enhance her interdisciplinary teaching and research approach. Her doctoral research developed a novel framework connecting mythology, literature, science, and philosophy, examining how values, truths, and customs are reinterpreted in modern Indian literature. Her areas of specialization include mythology and modern Indian literature, science–culture comparison, illness narratives, postcolonial identity, literature of resistance, and innovative/SDG-linked pedagogy. She has published over 21 papers in leading journals and has an h-index of 1. Since 2019, she has served as a member of the Board of Examiners and as a Subject Expert at Bharathiar University, Bharathidasan University, Avinashi lingam University, and Vivekananda University.
