Name of the Resource Person: Shri. J L Anil Kumar, Senior Consultant – LexOrbis, Bengaluru

Objectives: To give an overview of the Intellectual Property Rights to the students

Brief Write up on the Programme:

Ms Sparshana Mereen Poulse, 1st year MBA student, started the session with a silent prayer, followed by Ms Thanya M Raju, the welcome address. Mr Abhishek Biyani of I year MBA gave the introduction of the Chief Guest. With enthusiasm and full energy, Mr Anil Kumar began the session by sharing his real-life experiences. His presentation focused on Intellectual Property Rights in detail. He compared with the tangible properties we are familiar with such as land and buildings (agriculture and residential), gold, vehicles, etc., which are properties we can buy, sell, rent, lease, hire, and enjoy with full rights, which others cannot use without our permission. Whatever gives value to the above mentioned are intangible. He explained to us what Intellectual Property is by saying anything created by the human mind or intellect is known as Intellectual property for instance a painting, a photograph, or a song. He mentioned that these are some examples of intellectual property which we don't want others to own or say someone else has created it, we need credit, we don't want others to benefit from it neither financially nor in the same terms and if there are financial benefits, we want it. He mentioned that similar to the rights given to us by the government on our tangible property, it also gives us rights on our intellectual property. Then he gave us an intro about Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights. Then he explained to us about Copyright, Trademark, Registered Design, Patent, Geographical Indication and also mentioned how we should use and avail these facilities so as to keep our rights protected as the owners of the property. He stated there are now trade secrets laws in India and that it's covered by contract law, copyright law, the principles of equity and also the common law of action of a branch of confidence. The session was informative, dynamic, and inspiring. I MBA Students participated actively in the discussion and asked questions. The programme was organised by the School of Management in association with the Institutions Innovation Council. Dr Peter Leo, program coordinator School of Management concluded the session along with Dr D Ravindran, Institutes Innovation Council (IIC) followed by a formal vote of thanks by Ms Simran Das, student I year MBA.

Feedback:

The AIIS session on 30/10/2021 was very useful. The students learned a lot about the different rights they can claim for the intellectual properties they would come up with in the future or for any entrepreneurial activity in the future, thus enabling them to protect their intellectual property.
