KJC stages original play “Delilah: A Tale of forgiveness”

CH NEWS

The Department of English at Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous), Bengaluru, presented its original theatrical production Delilah: A Tale of Forgiveness to an enthusiastic audience on April 10, 2025. Written and performed entirely by undergraduate students, the play marks a milestone in the department's creative journey. Set in a reimagined world of Greek mythology, the drama explores the love story between the god Apollo and a mortal woman named Delilah.

Interwoven with themes of divine politics, human vulnerability, and emotional conflict, the narrative focuses on forgiveness as a path to peace amidst turmoil.

The play stands out for its bold performances, emotionally charged dialogues, and powerful portrayals of vengeance, love, and redemption. It highlighted how even gods are not immune to the trials of love and how forgiveness emerges as the ultimate strength.

Directed by students Mr. Joshua B and Ms. Shruti Sunil Jose, under the guidance of faculty members, Delilah featured impressive set designs and creative direction—all executed by the students themselves. Fr Jais V Thomas, financial administrator of the college, praised the students for bringing mythology into a modern framework through thought-provoking performance and storytelling. The production was met with wide acclaim from students and faculty alike, celebrating the immense talent and commitment of the cast and crew. Delilah reaffirms Kristu Jayanti College's dedication to nurturing artistic excellence and original expression among its student community.
