Students set to get tips from AI entrepreneurs

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bengaluru: The Times of India's Leaders on Campus is back with its second edition. Join us on Sept 12, 11.30am, at Kristu Jayanti (Deemed-to-be University), Kothanur, for a session on the topic, Building a successful AI business.

AI has rapidly become the backbone of innovation across various industries. For today's students, AI presents not just attractive career opportunities but also the potential to create ventures that disrupt markets and shape the future. At Leaders on Campus event, students will gain invaluable insights from Saurabh Chandra, founder and CEO of Ati Motors, a Bengaluru-based company working on autonomous mobility and industrial automation solutions. They will learn about the challenges and rewards of building businesses centred around AI.

With over 15 years of experience in the technology sector, Saurabh played a pivotal role in positioning Ati Motors as a trailblazer in autonomous solutions. Through this session, Saurabh will share lessons from his entrepreneurial journey, covering how to spot opportunities in AI, build a strong foundation for a tech-led venture, and scale solutions for real-world problems.

Ahead of the talk, TOI will host a thematic quiz on AI. Open exclusively to college students in Bengaluru, it will feature three questions each day for three days, starting Tuesday. Students who answer all nine questions correctly will stand a chance to be featured in TOI.

Quiz questions (Set 1)

1) Which type of AI creates new content like text, images or code by learning patterns from existing data?

2) Which tech giant owns DeepMind, a leading AI research lab?

3) Which is the first country in the world to have a minister for AI?
