

Kristu Jayanti College launches Annual Book Exhibition

The Library and Information Centre at Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) inaugurated its Annual Book Exhibition, 'JNANA DARSHAN 24-25' on Wednesday. This three-day event will feature book reviews, panel discussions, and the recognition of student authors, aimed at engaging book lovers and knowledge seekers.

The event began with a traditional lamp lighting ceremony conducted by Rev. Fr. Dr. Lijo P. Thomas, Vice Principal and Chief Finance Officer of the college. Also present were Dr. Gopakumar A.V., Dean of Humanities, Mr. Sudir Jain, Senior Territory Sales Manager at Pearson Publishers, Mr. Harish

D.N., Librarian, and Ms. Sonjukta Chatterjee, a student.

Rev. Fr. Dr. Lijo P. Thomas emphasized the significance of reading in today's digital age and commended the librarians for curating a book selection that meets academic needs. Dr. Gopakumar A.V. also spoke about the importance of reading and its impact on modern life.

The exhibition features works from 22 publishers, including Intact Book House, Knowledge Books House, and Himalaya Publishing House, among others. These publishers are presenting a wide range of educational and literary materials, contributing to the academic environment of the college.
