

CAMPUS CORNERKristu Jayanti College organise book exhibition

The Department of Library and Information of Kristu Jayanti College organised the annual book exhibition 'Jnana Darshan' recently. Santwana Bhattacharya, resident editor, The New Indian Express, Karnataka inaugurated the two day book exhibition. Fr Emmanuel PJ, Director, Jayantian Extension Service, stressed on the importance of reading books and encouraged the students to use library frequently. Santwana Bhattacharya addressed the need to read newspapers and books. "Newspapers, tweets and televisions will only provide information about what happens at present. But reading books, analysis and biographies will help in understanding what happened before and why it is important," she said.
