

Business Standard

CAMPUS
TALK

BS PROMOTIONS

Kirlosker Institute of Advanced Management Studies, Harihar Event

KIAMS, Harihar extended a special welcome to two of its dignified alumni, Mr. Satish Krishnan, 1998-2000 Batch, currently working as the Director - CX at Flipkart and Mr. Ramaprabhu, 2009-11 Batch, currently working as Customer Service Manager at Hindustan Unilever Ltd., on 20th July. A brief session was organized for the PGDM students where Mr. Satish Krishnan shared insightful information from his diverse experiences and success mantras. He shared some key learning points and motivated the student. Mr. Ramaprabhu who addressed the students shared his corporate experience. Corporate Relationship officer, Mr. Rajesh Dixit was also present along with the students to felicitate the alumni.

— Kanchan

KJC- Programme on Life Skills for Millennial Executives

School of Management, Kristu Jayanti College along with the Centre for Life Skills Education of the College organized a Capacity Building Training on "Life Skills for Millennial Executives" for the first year

MBA students of Batch 2019 - 20 between 25th July and 27th July. Rev. Fr. Augustine George, Vice Principal; Dr. Aloysius Edward, Dean; Dr. Jonas Richard, Director, Centre for Life Skills Education (CLSE) and Dr. M. K. Baby, Head, School of Management inaugurated the training. Life skill curriculum of the School of Management is based primarily on Professional Skills, Communication Skills, Interpersonal Skills, Ethics and Values. The training was split into ten sessions comprising of 10 core life skills namely, where it was delivered with a blend of activity based and experiential learning tools. The valedictory ceremony was presided over by Dr. Jonas Richard, Director, CLSE; Prof. Sen B Mathews, Director, Centre for Employability and Corporate Relations and Prof. John Pradeep. Certificates were issued to all the students who completed the training successfully.

R. V. Institute of Management (RVIM) signs MOU

R.V. Institute of Management in association with Aditya Birla Fashion Retail Janakalyan Trust (ABFR-JKT) launched 'GYANARJAN' - Free Coaching to X, I PUC and II PUC as a part of CSR initiative. It was inaugurated by Dr. Naresh Tyagi, Chief Sustainability Officer, Aditya Birla Fashion Retail Ltd. (ABFRL). A MOU was signed during the inaugural programme between RVIM and Aditya Birla Fashion Retail Janakalyan Trust. Sri. A. V. S. Murthy, Hon. Secretary, Rashtrreya Sikshana Samithi Trust presided and Dr. Purushottam Bung, Director, RVIM welcomed the gathering. The programme provides aspirants from economically weaker section to overcome their financial challenges and concentrate on education. The complete educational support is free and includes classroom lectures, career support, study materials and coaching for CET and NEET. 90 students enrolled for X Standard, 125 Students for I PUC and 85 Students for II PUC. The classes will be held in RVIM Campus from 5pm - 7pm on weekdays Monday - Friday.