Kristu Jayanti School of Management organized International Lecture Series

Kristu Jayanti School of Management organized an interactive session for the MBA students under its International Lecture Series platform on 7th November. Mr. Stephen Coman, Director, Human Capital Management, Grant Thornton, was the guest speaker. Mr. Coman started his speech by enumerating the expectations of an interviewer for a job. He explained and discussed about the star model and how to frame them in a situation focusing on action and result. He shared his insights and tips on how to be more effective in the workplace. He explained about the culture diversity in the organization. He also spoke on the Johari window and highlighted that self-discovery and knowing oneself is very essential to have a successful corporate career. The session was concluded with a Q & A interaction.

GSSIETW, Mysuru- Outbound Training

An outbound training was organized by Passion Adventure Wisdom (PAW) for the third semester MBA students of GSSIETW at Aagani Village, Sakleshpur, where the session lasted for three days. The main objective behind the training is to learn the ins and outs of the real-life situation, which in turn make us fearless in tackling the problem. The workshop had the following contents, Drums circle, Zipline, Trekking, Burma Bridge, Spider Web, 'A' Walk, Caterpillar Traverse and Mud throw ball. To give an overview of the training program, it was mesmerizing as the stay was in tents and cottages, which was a great experience. The activities were not just for fun, they helped the students to explore their self. The activities were infinite where there was no win or lose situation. It was a win-win situation which, improved cooperation and coordination.
