Kristu Jayanti College, on September 23, 2023, celebrated Ethnic Day with vibrant festivities that showcased the rich cultural diversity of the student body.

The day's celebrations began with a lively procession that ignited the spirits of students with every drumbeat performance. The campus came alive with students dressed in vibrant and elegant ethnic wear representing each state of India and other nations. The diversity among the students was astonishing. Fr. Dr. Augustine George, Principal of the institution, declared the event officially open with a speech, alongside other authorities, deans, and faculty members. He then inaugurated the vibrant celebration and encouraged students to actively participate. One after the other exciting events kept knocking the socks off students with a variety of cultural performances, and ethnic day competitions showcasing the finest traditional clothing with pride.

"This is my first time experiencing such a grand event. It has been an absolute blast! The passion and the ethnicity of the students are buzzing"

-Likitha NM, (I MSc Microbiology)

The Department of Media Studies, in collaboration with the Literary and Cultural Association, hosted an Instagram Photograph Contest called "Ethnic Euphoria," focusing on capturing the spirit of unity.

Epic Showdown: Master of Ceremony Competition Showcases Remarkable Performances

On the closing day of the fest on September 09, 2023, Kalajyothi, the Literary and Cultural Association, in collaboration with the Anchor's Association, organized the gripping finale of the Master of Ceremony competition. The event took place at the Conference Hall.

The charismatic hosts for the day were Nidhi and Siddhi, first-year undergraduate students. They warmly welcomed the esteemed judges, Dr. Arsha Subbi and Dr. Ruth Maddalene, both from the Department of English, who are also part of the Anchor's Association.

A total of nine students from various undergraduate departments participated in the competition. The competition comprised two rounds: "Pick and Promote" and a test of anchoring skills in addressing problem situations.

In the "Pick and Promote" round, each participant was allotted one minute to promote a randomly assigned product to persuade the audience to make an immediate purchase. In the subsequent round, participants showcased their anchoring prowess in addressing challenging scenarios. The event concluded with an invitation to the audience to test their anchoring abilities.

Jayantians witnessed a week of extraordinary talent during its annual intra collegiate event, Kalajyothi, held from September 04 to 09, 2023. The highlight of this cultural extravaganza was the skit competition, held at the M3 Auditorium. Five teams, brimming with creativity and enthusiasm, took the stage, presenting gripping performances based on mythology and ancient tales in English, Hindi, and Kannada.

Devi Priya, a second year BBA student, stole the show with her riveting portrayal of Holika, showcasing a remarkable ability to inhabit her character. Sakshi, who portrayed the anguished wife of Hiranyakashya, delivered a performance that tugged at heartstrings, evoking genuine empathy from the audience.

Kalajyothi, not only provided a platform for students to exhibit their unique styles, but also served as a testament to the rich cultural tapestry that Kristu Jayanti College fosters. The event encapsulated the college's dedication to nurturing creativity, talent, and a vibrant community spirit.
