

KJC MIRROR

Volume 7 Issue 3

KRISTU JAYANTI COLLEGE, AUTONOMOUS | DEPARTMENT OF MEDIA STUDIES | STUDENTS' PUBLICATION

The Jayantian Cup: A Battle of Grit and Determination

Aditya Pandey

On October 03 and 04, 2023 'The Jayantian Cup' Basketball Tournament was hosted by Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous (KJC), for the second time. The event featured 28 teams, both men and women representing various colleges in Bangalore.

MCC vs KJC: The clash of the titans outperformed its opponents from Christ University (Hosur main road).

Moving on to the men's semi-finals, KJC emerged victorious, advancing to the finals against Christ University (Hosur main road). In the women's category, KJC faced MCC as its opponent in the finals.

Mount Carmel College (MCC) secured the tournament championship in the women's category. Christ University (Hosur main road) emerged victorious, securing their second consecutive title in Jayantian Cup Basketball Tournament by a margin of seven points.

The Jayantian Cup was a resounding success, showcasing the spirit of sportsmanship and teamwork.

The first day began with an intense match between St. Joseph University and Garden City University. KJC and Christ University (Hosur main road) were the teams that surpassed the 50-point threshold.

KJC triumphed over Christ University (Kengeri) in the women's semi-finals, while Mount Carmel College (MCC)

Mount Carmel College secures the championship in women's category and Christ University emerge victorious securing the Jayantian Cup for the second consecutive time.

PICTURE OF THE DAY

Kusuma S

Mesmerising echoes of history in every intricate detail

Delphia Enchants Audience with Magical Showcase of Talent and Literary Brilliance

Prabhash Kumar Mandal

On October 05, 2023, the Department of English, Kristu Jayanti College Autonomous, hosted a highly anticipated intercollegiate fest, Delphia. The event brought together a diverse audience of students, faculty, and avid theatre enthusiasts. This enchanting showcase featured a troupe of exceptionally skilled actors whose seamlessly interconnected various captivating stories, captivating the audience from start to finish.

The fest commenced with a bewitching tale of four witches, featuring a young and endearing child witch. This mesmerizing narrative paved the way for a succession of enthralling performances. A modern twist on Cinderella's timeless tale left the audience spellbound, while Magwitch's character, drawn from Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations," added a touch of literary brilliance to the proceedings. The adventures of Pinocchio evoked a sense of nostalgia, emphasizing the importance of honesty and self-discovery.

The student actor captivates the audience with a mesmerizing performance and steals the spotlight at Delphia

The plays were masterfully directed by the students

Joshua B and Bijina Ann Varghese, showcasing their exceptional directorial prowess. Dr. Masilamani. C and Dr. Allwyn. F, the faculty coordinators, ensured flawless execution of the event by offering invaluable support and guidance for the students.

MA JMC Students Proudly Re-launch KJC Mirror

Evita Richards

On October 03, 2023, the students of MA JMC program at Kristu Jayanti College, autonomous (KJC) proudly relaunched the KJC Mirror, Volume 7, Issue 1. The event took place at PG block, room P204, with the esteemed guest, Dr. Gopakumar AV, Dean, Faculty of Humanities and Head, Department of Media Studies, along with other faculty members.

The event was led by Dr. Gopakumar AV, who appreciated the students for their hard work and commitment to delivering quality content. He stated that the KJC Mirror is not just a newsletter but also a reflection of the passion and dedication of the journalism students. He added that it will play a vital role in keeping the college community well-informed.

The relaunch of the KJC Mirror marked an exciting new chapter

Dr. Gopakumar A V and Prof. Alan Maria Jose along with the student editorial team proudly presents Volume 7, Issue 1 of KJC Mirror for the student-led publication. The newsletter aims to keep the KJC community informed and engaged. It covers a wide array of content categories, catering to the diverse interests and expertise of the students. From concise news briefs to thought-provoking student work, the newsletter offers a rich tapestry of information and perspectives. It serves as a testament to the talent and dedication of the MA JMC students at KJC. The relaunch of the KJC Mirror was met with enthusiasm and high expectations from both faculty and student community.

EDITORIAL BOARD

CHIEF EDITOR Dr. Gopakumar AV	STUDENT COORDINATORS Katteth Jibin Thankachan Kusuma S Gregory Joshua	STUDENT EDITORS Shivangi Kashyap Wooddipona Bhattacharjee Upama Upadhayaya	LAYOUT DESIGNER Abhinand Prasanakumar
---	---	--	---