Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous, recently concluded the KHEL 2024 Football Tournament at Mount Carmel College Autonomous, and the ground witnessed the remarkable performance of the KJC football Team. The tournament started on February 26 and over the course of two days, February 27-28, 2024 the team showcased their football expertise, securing victories that led them straight to the finals.

“In our opening match against SMVIT we scored 3-0 in the pre-quarters, we set the tone early and made the most of our strengths,” remarked Aditya Pandey, a key player of the football Team. “Our teamwork and strategy were crucial in securing the win.” Continuing their winning streak, the team secured their spot in the championship by decisively defeating CMS JAIN 2-0 in the second quarterfinals. Their dominance persisted in the semi-finals against Jain Jaynagar with an impressive 4-0 victory. In the championship showdown, they maintained their supremacy on the field, clinching a 2-0 win over REVA in the finals to claim a well-deserved triumph. Reflecting on their strategy for the final victory, Pandey remarked,

“We anticipated REVA’s formidable challenge, but we remained steadfast in our game plan. Our execution was precise, and our discipline never wavered.” Aditya expressed his team’s excitement at being crowned champions of the KHEL 2024 Football Tournament. He emphasized that their victory reflects their hard work and dedication, and they are committed to sustaining their success in the future.

KJC football Team’s triumph adds to their already illustrious record, as they have consistently brought home numerous trophies in the past. Their firm dedication, strong team playing and talent made them a dominant presence in the football arena, and their continued success fills their supporters with pride.

In a captivating cinematic event, Cinema Paradiso, the film club associated with the Department of Media Studies at Kristu Jayanti College, Autonomous, successfully organized its third film review session on March 1, Friday starting at 4.30 pm in the H2 lab. The spotlight of the evening was the screening of Fallen Leaves, a film directed by Aki Kaurismaki and released in 2023, running for 81 minutes. Prior to this, Cinema Paradiso had showcased cinematic gems like Bicycle Thieves and Dial M for Murder in its previous sessions. The event kicked off with a brief but insightful introduction to the film and its esteemed director. Faculty members from the Media Studies Department were in attendance, contributing to the academic atmosphere of the occasion. Following the screening, a lively discussion unfolded, with students enthusiastically sharing their perspectives and keen observations about ‘Fallen Leaves.’ The unwavering support from faculty members has fueled students’ enthusiasm for more captivating film screening sessions in the future. This session not only provided a platform for cinematic exploration but also underscored the collaborative spirit within the college’s academic community. The success of this film review session has generated excitement and anticipation in faculties and students for future events.
