Resource Persons with details:

- Prof.Sen B Mathews, Director - Centre for Employability and Corporate Relations, Kristu Jayanti College Bengaluru.

Objective:

- To develop students' competencies and enable the students to prepare for the attending of job interviews of various companies.

Brief write up:

Department of Economics has organized a Placement orientation training programme on “Foundations of Interview: Attending with Confidence” to enhance skills, knowledge and techniques of attending for the job interviews, which would enable them to seek job opportunities. The Resource Person was Prof.Sen Mathews, from Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) Bengaluru.

The resource person focused mainly on the preparing students systematically equipped, to attend the job interviews.

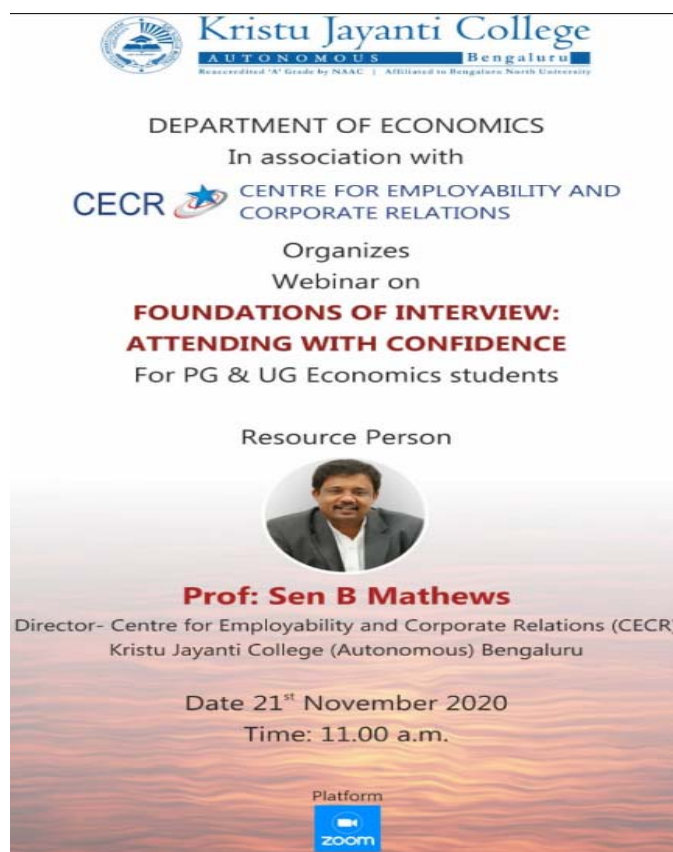

The most significant purpose of conducting this session is that, to develop multiple options of seeking job opportunities after completing the education of the students. Resource person emphasized on the availability of opportunities in the fields of JIG workforce, as part timers, full timers, and also in the field of artificial intelligence to shape their career. He also opined that, hiring factor has been changed from traditional to virtual due to the impact of Covid19, according to which the job aspirants will have to prepare with.

Finally the session came to an end with an interaction session, wherein, the students have posed various questions and accordingly the resource person clarified all of them. The session ended at 5.15 PM.

Learning Outcome:

Students' gained an adequate knowledge of techniques of attending of job interviews of various companies. It was a great experience to learn about the dress code, time code, gestures and behavior pattern of attending job interviews. This session made the students capable of attending interviews with enough confidence and preparation by increasing their level of confidence.

Report

Department of English UG organised an Expert lecture on the title “Society, Theatre and Classroom: A virtual interactive session with Mahesh Dattani” on 18th August 2021. The resource person was Mahesh Dattani, celebrated playwright, director, actor, writer, and the first playwright in English to be conferred the Sahitya Akademi Award. The virtual platform brought together research scholars, students and faculties from different corners of India. 1600 participants registered for the Expert lecture.

The session began with a silent prayer. Dr Lillykutty Abraham introduced the guest of the day. Mahesh Dattani started the session by explaining the various aspects of theatre and acting. He passionately spoke about the theatre experience, characters and inspirations of his writings and performance. He appreciated the participants for their responses and interest on theatre art and writings. There were 300 + questions from the participants, the questions were clubbed and answered by the resource person. The session helped the participants to understand the author’s concept of characters and the aspects of theatre in a simpler manner. The session ended on a very successful and transformational note.

Dr Lillykutty Abraham, the chief coordinator of the event was the moderator of the session. Prof. Sumathi N proposed the vote of thanks.

Overall, the session was a pleasant experience of learning the aspects of theatre, writing and performance.

The session was live on Kristu Jayanti College Autonomous YouTube channel.

Name of the event: Unravelling Emotions Through Poetry

Date: 31-08-2021

No.of Participants- 177 (III and V Sem JPEng, Eng. Hons.)

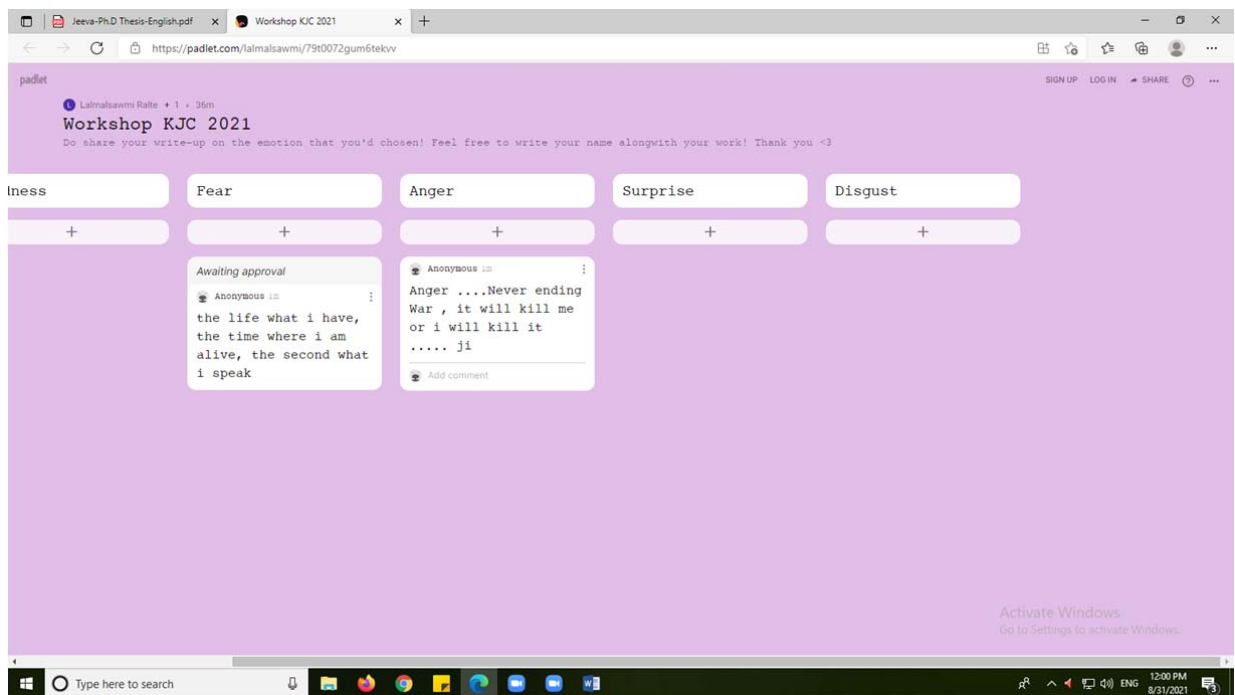

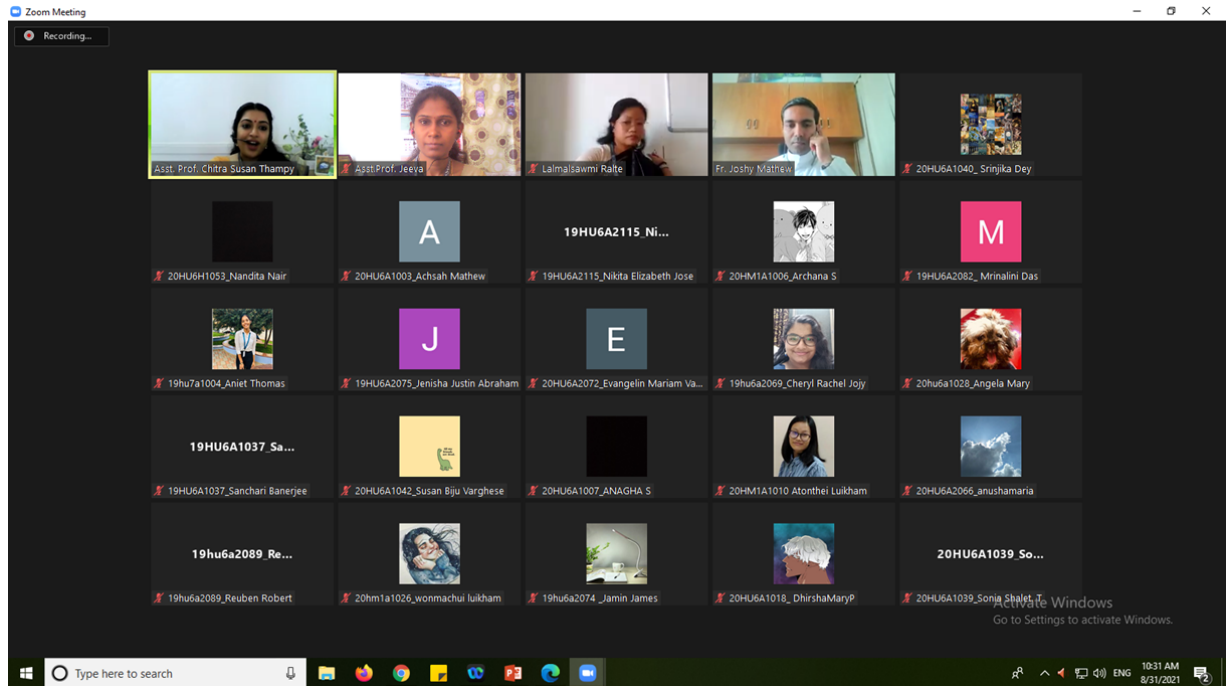

Resource Person: Dr. Lalmalsawmi Ralte

Recitals 2021 of The Department of English conducted a workshop for poetry enthusiasts titled “Unravelling Emotions through Poetry” on 31st August, 2021. The workshop was conducted exclusively for the second and third year students of JPEng and Eng. Hons.

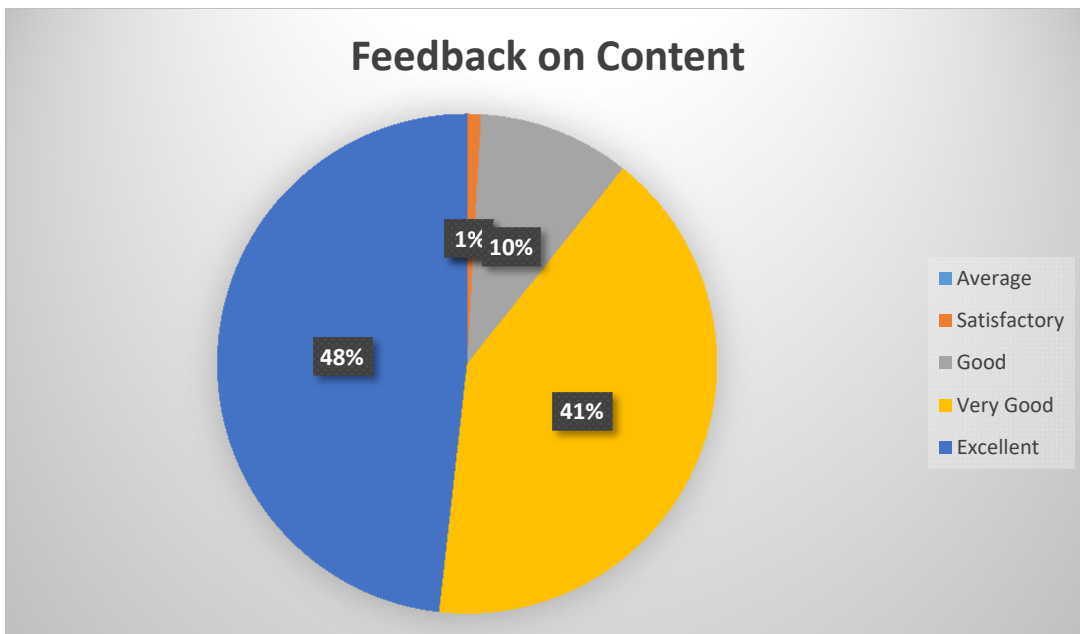

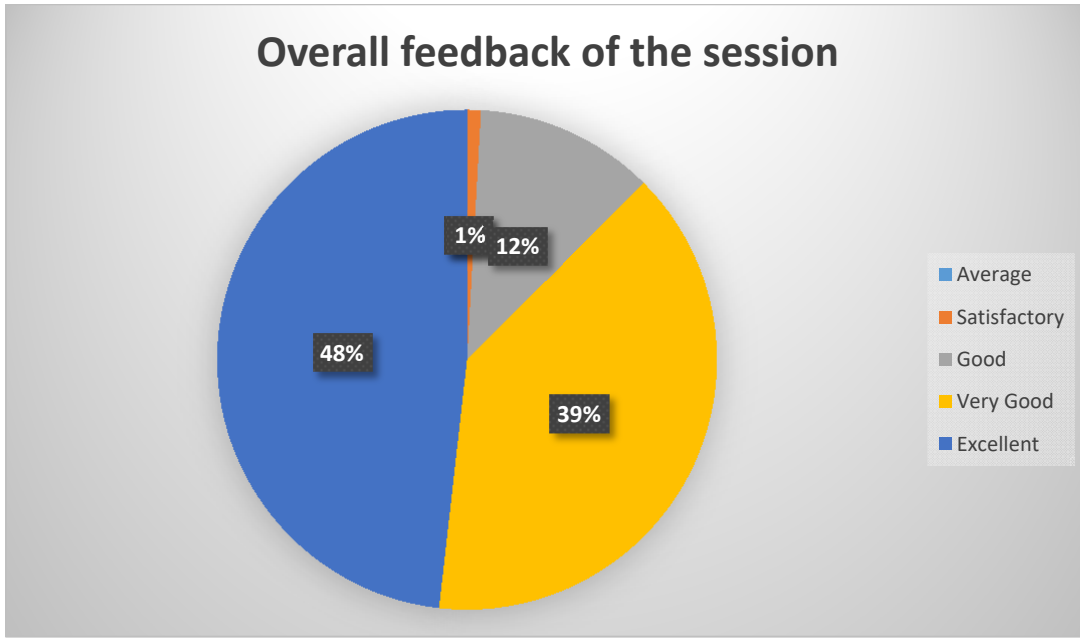

Recitals 2021 strives to inculcate and nurture the love for poetry in young budding poets. The first programme of Recitals is a workshop that aims to enlighten the students on the technical aspects of writing poems. The resource person of the workshop was Dr. Lalmalsawmi Ralte, assistant professor of English UG department. Dr. Ralte shared her rich experiences of writing and publishing poetry. She also gave hands-on training to students for writing snippets of poetry on various emotions. Since the workshop was conducted online, all hands-on training was given on Padlet and several other online platforms.

The participants thoroughly enjoyed the session and gave a very positive feedback on the efficiency of the resource person at inspiring the participants and also helping them in providing a venue to lend words to their inner thoughts.

Report:

The session started with a silent prayer. Dr Aloysius Sebastian, Department of English, welcomed the Resource Person, Prof E Justin Ruben, faculty coordinators, other faculty members and the students. Prof Rini Reba Mathew introduced the Resource Person. Prof Justin Ruben spoke on how an individual can gain confidence during public speaking and how to overcome stage fear. He gave the students several tips on how to become confident public speakers. He also spoke about how improvisation often becomes a very useful tool towards overcoming stage fear. He elaborated and substantiated his arguments by talking about the how great orators engaged in public speaking. Moreover, he elaborated upon the importance of improvisation in public speaking by bringing in examples of stand-up comedians. Dr Aloysius moderated the question and answer session. The students participated with great enthusiasm. The programme was concluded with a Vote of Thanks.

Feedback:

Through the session, the students gained a lot of insightful knowledge on how to become confident and to use certain techniques towards overcoming stage fear.
