Commemoration of World Tourism Day

YAAN and Pratibimba Parva 2016 - Report

Date: 26th & 27th September 2016

No of beneficiaries: 222 B.Com tourism students

Objective: It was organized to provide an opportunity for students to showcase their talents by participating in the Culinary and Cultural Expo. Moreover, students will come to know about the ethnicity and cultural diversity of the country through various exhibitions and food stalls. The resource person was Mr. M.M Yaseen, Joint General Manager, Air Traffic Management, Bangalore

B.Com Tourism (Vocational) & BA Tourism Students organized the “YAAN 2016”, Culinary and Cultural Expo along with an Intra Collegiate Kite Flying Competition as part of World Tourism day celebration 2016.

It was held on 26th September & 27th September 2016. The Culinary and Cultural Expo on 26th September 2016 was inaugurated by Rev.Fr. Augustine George. The exhibition was opened by 12 pm and ended by 3.30 pm. 222 students from the tourism department actively participated in the fest. The students were divided into groups. There were approximately 48 stalls, which were set on different themes. Each stall consisted of 5 students and they bought traditional homemade food items for the exhibition. The students dressed up in traditional outfits based on the selected theme and this made the stalls more attractive.

This fest was conducted to evaluate the competitive spirit of the students in the field of organizing and marketing. It also helped in building knowledge to the students and staff members from other departments about different cultures, lifestyles and traditions of various states in India.

This fest also gave an opportunity to enhance the skill of marketing among students as they made a good amount of profit by selling various culinary items and handicrafts. There was a panel of five judges to evaluate the performance of the students based on various criteria.

The department also organized an Intra Collegiate Kite Flying Competition, ‘PrathibimbaParva 2016’ on 27th September 2016 at the college ground. The chief guest of the session was Mr. M.M Yaseen, Joint General Manager, Air Traffic Management, API. Mr. Yaseen inaugurated the Kite Flying Competition. Rev. Fr. Augustin George addressed the gathering. Students and teachers actively participated in the competition. Around 30 teams participated in the Kite Flying Competition.

The winners of the Kite Flying Competition and Culinary and Cultural Expo were given prizes and certificates by the chief guest, Mr. M.M Yaseen.

DELPHIA 2016

Title- Delphia, Intracollegiate Fest and Exhibition

Date- 20 August 2016

The Department of English organized the annual intra collegiate fest 'Delphia 2016' hosted by the Erudite Club on August 20, 2016 in Kristu Jayanti College. Rev. Fr. Augustine George, Vice Principal inaugurated the fest and released the Department publication 'Expressions'.

One of the major highlights of Delphia 2016 was the live exhibition based on various works of literature comprising fiction, poetry, prose and more. The live exhibition was performed in three-time slots, with two in the morning and one in the afternoon. Characters from Literature were brought back to life in the live exhibition giving the audience a space to envision the characters interacting with them making it more like a virtual reality experience. From Julius Caesar to Chemmeen it was a culmination of seven acts from various works of literature covering British Literature, European and Non-European Literature and Indian Literature.

The live exhibition included enactments from Julius Caesar, Life Doesn't Frighten Me, Raven, Wide Sargasso Sea, Heart of Darkness, Hayavadana and Chemmeen exploring the different ages and cultures of Literature around the globe. Commemorating the 400 death anniversary of William Shakespeare, the department has organized a programme 'Remembering William Shakespeare' with the enactment of scenes from Shakespeare's As You Like It. As a part of the literary fest, the Department has included events like Masquerade Competition, Language and Literary Quiz and Paper Presentation Competition.

Centre for Social Activities

Visit to Home of Hope

Date: 15/8/2016
students)

No. of Students attended: 250 (41 CSA students & 209 UG

Number of Beneficiaries : Inmates of Home of Hope

The objectives include creating awareness among students about the neighborhood, sensitizing students to offer social work, to sensitize students to the predicaments and problems of aged people and become aware of the joy of serving and being with the aged

On the occasion of the 70th Independence Day, volunteers of the Centre for Social Activities visited Home of Hope to invoke a true sense of community participation and service. At 8.30 am, the flag was hoisted while singing the National Anthem. Volunteers performed cultural activities, conducted games, and served breakfast for the inmates of the Home. The members of the CSA actively interacted with the inmates and donated groceries like sugar, dhal and eatables worth Rs 11,000. There were about 250 volunteers along with the faculty coordinators, Mr. Manjunath S, Mrs. Preethi and Dr. A.J. Excelce.

The experience was, without a shadow of a doubt, a very rewarding and fulfilling activity. It was an afternoon spent between fun and games and getting to know the inmates and making them smile. This indeed was a great learning experience.

Date: 10 August 2016 to 16 August 2016

Organized by: Department of Commerce

Total Number of Events: 7

Total Number of Participants: 160

Jai Hind, an exclusive patriotic breeding programme conducted by the Dept. of Commerce, was organized to commemorate our nation's 70th Independence Day. Various cultural programs were conducted to pay tribute to our country's martyrs and celebrate the rich and diversified cultures and traditions of our nation. Jai Hind was successfully and efficiently organized under the able guidance and leadership of Professor Vijaykumar, head, department of commerce, Ms Varsha Madhavan.

Faculty Coordinators for Jai Hind, Rohit K. Ravi and Siddhi Saxena, the student Coordinators and a responsible group of volunteers. Jai Hind 2016 witnessed disciplined participation of around 200 students who took part in various cultural events like Poster Making, Quiz, Mime, Solo and Group Singing, Group Dance, Tableau and The Grand Fashion Show that showcased the rich cultures and traditions of 23 states of India from Kashmir to Kanyakumari. The prelims and auditions for the various events started on 10 August with the main auditorium's finals on the 16th August 2016.

On 16 August 2016, the JAI HIND was organized by bringing out the hidden talents and patriotic spirit in every commerce department student. As a part of the promotion, the entire college got a chance to witness a spectacular fashion show by the commerce department students showcasing the ethnicity of 23 states of INDIA in the quadrangle of Kristu Jayanti College. The students also got to hear an inspirational and thought-provoking message delivered by our Principal Rev. Fr. Josekutty P.D and also witness many commendable and wonderful performances from the students of the department in programs ranging from patriotic singing, dances, tableau, mime and skit, during the cultural program between 2.30 to 4.30 PM in the main auditorium.
