Title: Ethnic Day

Date: 04/09/17

The ethnic day celebrations were held on the 4th of September 2017. Kristu Jayanti College celebrated Ethnic Day with a great festive atmosphere. The students adorned in their ethnic wear also showcased various traditional performances.

The various programs showcased a vernacular medley group song, Nagaland group song, Thiruvadhira, a traditional dance of Kerala, Sub-Saharan dance of Africa. The Northeastern students performed their traditional dance Cheraw which is a ritual dance performed in Mizoram, consisting of four people holding two crossed pairs of bamboo staves. After all these events, around two hundred students performed a 'flash mob" dance performance which hyped the students to cheer and celebrate along with their fellow Jayantians.

Commemoration of World Tourism Day - YAAN 2017

Date: 25th September 2017

Venue: Main Auditorium

Time: 11:50 a.m- 03:00 p.m

No of participants: 244

Chief Guests: Mr. Thomas Mathew, HoD, Housekeeping, Army Institute of Hotel Management and Mr. Jeyaraj Venkatasamy, Assistant Professor, Culinary, Army Institute of Hotel Management.

To commemorate World Tourism Day, B.Com Tourism (Vocational) & BA Tourism Students organized “YAAN 2017”, a Culinary and Cultural Expo dated 25th September, 2017 at the Main Auditorium from 11:50 AM to 3 PM.

The promotion of YAAN 2017 was held at 11:50 AM in the college quadrangle where it was declared open by Rev. Fr. Augustine George, Vice Principal, Kristu Jayanti College.

The Chief guests for the day consisted of Mr. Thomas Mathew, HOD, Housekeeping, Army Institute of Hotel Management and Mr. Jeyaraj Venkatasamy, Assistant Professor, Culinary, Army Institute of Hotel Management. They also took great interest to be a part of the members of the jury for YAAN 2017.

The students of Tourism had exhibited more than 300 varieties of ethnic dishes within their span of 50 stalls. Students from B. A (Tourism) and B.Com (Tourism) participated and all the 50 stalls had a theme pertaining to a state, type of food or related to the team members' ethnicity.

Stalls are based on a particular place or communities' food items, and 244 students from the tourism department actively participated in the fest. The students were divided into groups. There were approximately 50 stalls, which were set on different themes. Each stall consisted of 4 students and they bought traditional homemade food items for the exhibition. The students dressed up in traditional outfits based on the selected theme and this made the stalls more attractive. The stalls had many write-ups, souvenirs and handicrafts which captured the attention of the audience.

There was a panel of four judges to evaluate the performance of the students based on various criteria. Yaan 2017 also had a stall exclusively for Tibetan food items which secured second place in the competition. The winners were declared and awarded at the valedictory function of YAAN 2K17. The criterion for the winning teams consisted of Stall setup, Ethnicity, Food items and so on.

Kalajyothi 2017 Report

Total no of Events: 48

Date: From 13-7-2017 to 22-7-2017

Total No of participants: 1985

'Kalajyothi 2017', the annual intra-collegiate cultural and literary fest, opens a platform for the students to showcase their talents through various events. The week-long fest saw the participation of hundreds of students from the different departments of the college. The fest incorporated both secular and gospel events in three major languages, English, Kannada and Hindi. Kalajyothi was officially inaugurated on July 16. Events took place throughout the week and each day with both individual and group participation. The highlights of the fest were '60 seconds to fame', where the participants had to make an impression on the crowd with any of their abilities, 'Personality contest', in which students were judged based on their capability to handle stressful situations given to them.

The fest also hosted many fine arts events like face painting, masquerade, jewelry designing, costume designing, cartooning, painting and such. Creative writing saw the most participants with 223 aspirants with topics relevant to the current situations in the country like GST. Another event that caught the attention of the crowd was 'Adaptune', where dancers had to use their improvisational skills of dancing and were put to test, which was zealous fun for the participants and audience alike. "Kalajyothi opens a vast opportunity to the aspiring students, especially the first years as it allows them to experience competitive feasting," said Samson Easo, student coordinator, Literary and Cultural Association.

"It is the culmination of all excitement at Kristu Jayanti College. And what makes this year's edition special is that it had the maximum participation since the 15 years of when it started," commented Dr. Calistus Jude, Dean Faculty of Science and Faculty coordinator of LCA. The fest ended with an engraving show by various band performances and dance.

Nrityanjali- National Dance Fest

Date: 03-02-2018

Total no of Events: 09

Total No of participants: 256

Student Coordinators: Samson Easo, Srividya and a team of volunteers

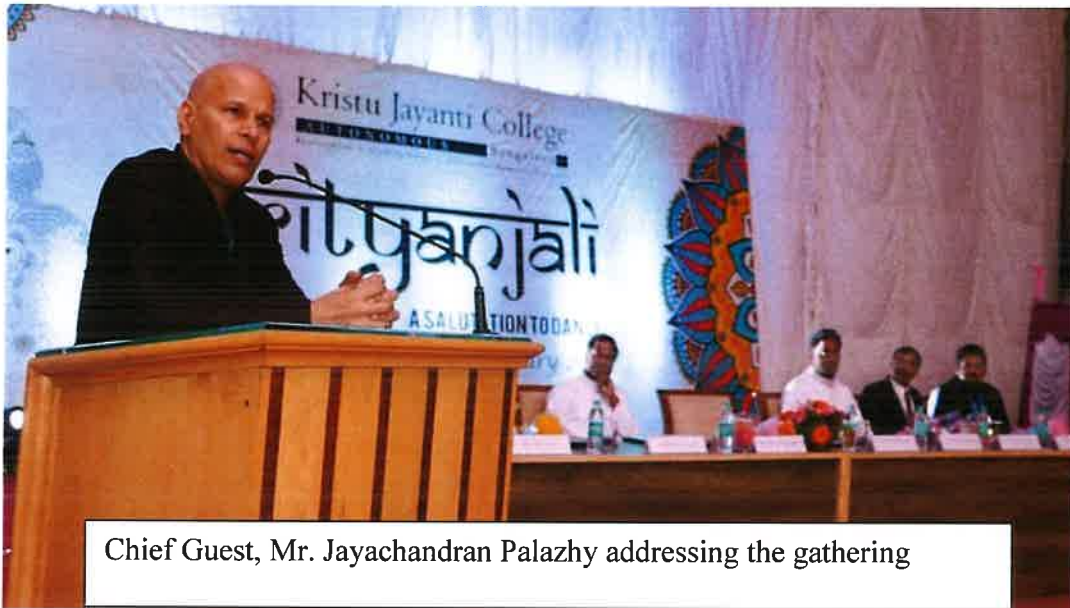

Dancing is a performance art that we all acquire the moment we set foot on this realm. Be it in anger or joy, from the stomping of feet to twirling around in confusion, dance has been rooted within our blood since day one. This particular performing art has been widely acknowledged and recognized in terms of therapy and human emotions. From being able to do what you love to make a difference in another's life, dancing has caught up on various levels aside from the physical element of exercising.

As an endeavor to promote dance and its culture, the Literary and Cultural Association (LCA) of Kristu Jayanti College organized 'Nrityanjali', the National Intercollegiate dance festival which has achieved over ten years of active participation from colleges. This festival was held on February 3rd, 2018, and was conducted as a National level inter-collegiate dance competition in which 42 colleges across India participated. 256 artists across the country performed during Nrityanjali. Jyoti Nivas College, Bangalore was adjudged overall winners of Nrityanjali-2018 and St. Claret's College, Bangalore was Runners up.

As the college celebrated the eleventh year of 'Nrityanjali,' this edition's Chief Guest was Mr. Jayachandran Palazhy, Founder and Artistic Director of Attakkalari Centre for Movement Arts, for the Inaugural Ceremony.

"Dance attracts people of all ages from all communities and makes them feel good about themselves. This is the spirit we try to promote in Nrityanjali. The plethora of events in Nrityanjali covered the entire dance spectrum under Classical, Folk, Theme, Duet, Western and Eastern Dance events which were organized at both the individual and group levels, and were judged by a panel of renowned young dance gurus. By emphasizing participation in folk dance & classical dance, the fest wished to promote and preserve cultural identity.

Shakespearean Play

Title- The Merchant of Venice: A Pound of Flesh

Dates- 31.01.2018 and 01.03.2018

The Department of English (Erudite club) staged the play "The Merchant of Venice: A Pound of Flesh" with the theme Love, Loyalty, Mercy and Revenge on 31st January and March 1 2018 in Kristu Jayanti College. The play directed by Demetrius Jacob (VI BBA), Ehboklang Pyngrope (IV MA), Mohammed Tayyab (VI BA) and Nisha Eapen (IV BA) and under the guidance of the faculty coordinators Mr. Thomas (HoD of English U.G) and Mrs. Reena Rani Justin (Faculty, Department of English).

The play had an acting team, a prop team, costume and makeup team and all compiled from a mixture of students from various departments adding up to 67 members, which truly made this herculean task all the more easier to bear with from the combined effort of the entire group. With continuous practice sessions that lasted a minimum of 2-3 hours and went on till the whole day, the cast had sacrificed many a weekend to make sure they put on a grand show for the college to see on the 31st Jan and 1 March 2018. This play surely broke the expectations of the many viewers who had come to watch the first show, in the SKE Auditorium where it took place and was packed to the very last seat.

The inaugural session was graced by the presence of Fr. Augustine George (Vice-Principal), Dr. Gopakumar A V (Dean, Department of Humanities). Both of them spoke very positively with the words of encouragement.
