Van Mahotsav - 2015

Trees are the life source of the planet, but their alarming decrease has raised a serious concern. In order to combat this issue, a movement was initiated in the year 1950 by India's then Union Minister for Agriculture, Kulapati Dr. K M Munshi.

“If a tree is saved at a cost of one’s head, it’s worth it,” said the noted activist Amrita Devi Bishoni. The Centre for Social Activities celebrated Van Mahotsav on 11th July 2015, at Primary Health Centre, Bagalur. CSA volunteers assembled at 9.30 a.m and were divided into groups of five. The groups planted saplings and nourished the planted saplings, under the guidance and supervision of CSA staff coordinators Mr.Manjunath S Gowda & Mr. Ragavendra Babu. 79 volunteers actively participated.

Van Mahotsava was not only an event to plant trees and saplings, it rather turned out to be a great and splendid event; and it nourished the relationship among the students to work as a team for the betterment of society and environment.

This program created awareness among the students and emphasized on the importance of growing trees.
