

EDUCATION ROUND UP

Giving back to alma-mater stressed at the Graduation Day of PES University: Dr. M R Doreswamy, Chancellor, PES University, congratulated the 627 graduating students at the recently held 8th year of Graduation Day in the city while suggesting them to use their knowledge to serve the nation. 8 Gold and 83 Silver Medals were given away to deserving students. He also pointed out at the efforts of the institute with regard to placements and their objective of hundred percent placement. Chief Vigilance Commissioner, Central Vigilance Commission, K V Chowdary who delivered the Graduation Ceremony address asked students to engage in lifelong learning. While Prof. D. Jawahar, Pro Chancellor, PES University and CEO, PES Institutions unveiled the Scroll of Honour, Dr. K S Sridhar, Principal, PESIT proposed the vote of thanks.

REVA Releases "Wild Wings": A compilation of teen poetry, "Wild Wings" written by Srashta Vani Kollu, now a Law student at REVA university's School of Legal Studies at Bangalore was released by the University here in the city recently. Written between the ages of 13 to 18, the poems represent the journey of a teenager from attaining wings and exploring without inhibitions. With a touch of innocence and a wisp of eagerness using butterfly to represent struggle, challenges and freedom, the book is a blend of poems from different schematic segments including nature, childhood, emotions and feelings to simple things.

Ethnic Day at Kristu Jayanti College: It was a cultural amalgamation in Kristu Jayanti College on 19th September, 2018 when students adorned themselves in their respective ethnic outfits to celebrate the Ethnic Day. A plethora of cultural activities followed through the day setting the stage right for the occasion. Dr. Calistus Jude, Dean of the Department of Life Science remarked "Ethnic day is an occasion in Kristu Jayanti College that follows the acknowledgement of an ensemble cast of cultures from all over the globe and celebrates unity in diversity through acts that exhibit a cultural signature".

SSR Group of Institutions celebrates Teachers' Day amidst much fanfare: It was a day to reckon with for the teachers of SSR Group as they celebrated Teachers' Day at their premises and the nominated teachers were recognized with awards amidst huge applause. Members of the Management, Chairman, Mr.Raghu, Secretary, Ms.Hemalatha, Director, Prof.Somashekar, Engineer, Mr.Murali and Principal, Dr.Baswaraj Biradar welcomed the gathering. Dr.Panchakshariaiah, Retired UNDP Professor, Kuvempu & Haramaya University, Ethiopia was the Chief Guest for the occasion. Admission Officer and Placement Assistant, Mr.Santhosh delivered Vote of Thanks.

Doctor from Raja Rajeswari Medical College makes Namma Bengaluru proud: Dr.Priya Sharath, a Professor of Dermatology in RajaRajeswari Medical College and Hospital, Bangalore has made the whole state proud by winning the 2nd runner up at Mrs. India Galaxy 2018, a coveted beauty pageant held recently at New Delhi. Mrs. India Galaxy is a prestigious beauty pageant, held once a year since the last decade and meant specifically for married women of India. Apart from being Second Runner up, Dr.Priya also bagged two more titles as Mrs. Social Icon for her concern towards the society and Mrs Most Dynamic. She was thankful to the Management of the college for their support.

K. GIRIJA