

Pre-Independence Day at college

The Kristu Jayanti Music Academy sang Vande Mataram, which was followed by an ethnic fashion show by the faculty members of the Department of Commerce. Later, the National Anthem was sung to commemorate the pre-Independence Day organised by Kristu Jayanti College. Fr. Dr. Augustine George, Principal stated the spirit of the college is back and said we need to cherish and practise the ideals and values of the great sacrifices done by our great freedom fighters and rejoice in Unity and Diversity.

“This event aimed to bring out national integration, patriotism, love, and unity. Though we may come from different communities, society or cultures, we celebrate as united India,” opined Vijaykumar R, Head, Department of Commerce. The event tried to enhance the spirit of patriotism among the students and to remind them of the value of the freedom that we relish because of the courage, sacrifices, and dedication laid down by our ancestors and leaders of the country. “Jai Hind is the exposition of the unique diversity and heritage of our nation that invokes patriotic sentiments in the hearts of the people”.
